PAYMENT RULES

National Championships payment rules

- EBF will have to be provided the printed version of the show catalogue and the correct IBAN, SWIFT and NAME of the accounts for each breeder/winner of the prize money, within 60 days of the show, to ebf@ecaho.org.
- In case the organizer has paid the money out to the winning breeders from their side, EBF will have to be provided the printed version of the show catalogue and also a form, filled out by each winning breeder/owner receiving the prize money. The form must include the name of the winning horse, the name of the breeder/owner receiving the prize money, the amount of prize money and the signature of the breeder receiving the prize money. These signed forms and the official invoice of the total payment (including IBAN, SWIFT and NAME of the account) will have to be provided by the organizer, within 60 days of the show, to ebf@ecaho.org.
- All other after show requested materials (show results, DC report, photos) have to be send to EBF within the same time frame (within 60 days of the show). In case the end date is not met, the money will not be paid out.
- After receiving all the requested materials and account info on all the winners, the money will be transferred. Confirmational e-mail will be sent to the association confirming that the payments have been made in accordance with the account information provided to EBF by the association. The transfer of the prize money is usually processed at the end of the year.
- EBF will only be in contact with the association, regarding any inquiries of the EBF prize money, and NOT each breeder/winner separately. Breeders must contact the association for any inquiries, questions, comments etc. they may have regarding the prize money. The association must therefore not refer the breeders to EBF regarding the prize money.
- Mistakes in the IBAN, SWIFT or NAME of the recipient of the prize money or claims of money not being received, can be retried transferred only once more (if requested by the association), where the fee of the second transfer will be paid by the recipient.

European Championships payment rules

- EBF will have to be provided the printed version of the show catalogue and contacts/e-mails for each breeder/winner of the prize money by the organizer, within 21 days of the show, to ebf@ecaho.org. EBF will then contact all the prize money winner directly via the given e-mails and set a deadline, for when all the payment details of each winner will have to be sent to EBF.

- All other after show requested materials (show results, DC report, photos) has to be send by the show organizer to EBF within the time frame of 30 days after the show.
- When the prize money has been transferred, EBF will be sending a confirmational e-mail to each winner confirming that the payments have been made in accordance with the account information provided.
- Mistakes in the IBAN, SWIFT or NAME of the recipient of the prize money or claims of money not being received, can be retried transferred only once more, where the fee of the second transfer will be paid by the recipient.
